PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The complainant states that Jose Melendrez-Marquez, is a citizen of a country other than the United States; that said alien has admitted they are deportable; that their testimony is material; that it is impracticable to secure his attendance at trial by subpoena; and that he is a material witness in relation to these criminal charges and should be held or admitted to bail pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3144.

On July 24, 2008, at approximately 11:40 PM, Jose Edmundo RINCON (Defendant) made application for admission into the United States driving a stolen gold Chevy Malibu at the Tijuana Port of Entry. Defendant presented a valid California Identification Card to a CBP Officer, verbally claimed United States Citizenship. The CBP Officer noticed that Defendant was nervous as his hands were shaking and he was stuttering when answering questions. Defendant gave two negative declarations to the CBP officer. The CBP Officer referred the vehicle and its sole visible occupant for secondary inspection.

In secondary inspection, a CBP Officer discovered and removed one individual from the behind the rear seat of the vehicle. The individual is now identified as a Material Witness: Jose MELENDREZ-Marquez (MW). The Material Witness was found in a specially built compartment, behind the rear seat in between the passenger compartment and the trunk of the vehicle. Material Witness was determined to be a citizen of Mexico with no entitlements to enter, pass-through, or reside in the United States.

A videotaped interview was conducted with the Material Witness. MW stated he is a citizen of Mexico with no documents to lawfully enter or reside in the United States. MW stated that he met Defendant yesterday in an unknown park in Tijuana, Mexico and Defendant offered to smuggle MW into the United States. MW accepted the offer and agreed to pay a smuggling fee of $5000.00 to be paid upon his successful entry into the United States. MW indicated that he was taken to an unknown house in Tijuana, prior to being placed in the vehicle by Defendant and two other unknown Mexican males. MW stated that he was in the compartment for approximately thirty minutes and that he could not get out without help. MW stated he intended to travel to Long Beach, California to return to his residence. During the interview, MW identified Defendant by his first name. MW stated that he knows it is illegal to enter the United States in this manner.
